Measures of Wuxi Institute of Technology for the Management of Jiangsu Government Scholarship

In order to further standardize the award of Jiangsu Government Scholarship, enhance the international attractiveness of higher education of Jiangsu, and attract and encourage outstanding foreign students to receive academic education in Jiangsu regular institutions of higher learning, the Measures of Wuxi Institute of Technology for the Management of Jiangsu Government Scholarship is formulated according to the Measures for the Management of Jiangsu Government Scholarship of Jiangsu Provincial Department of Finance and Jiangsu Provincial Department of Education.

Chapter 1 General Provisions

Article 1 In order to build the education brand of “Overseas Study in Jiangsu” and enhance the international influence of Jiangsu education, the People's Government of Jiangsu Province establishes the Jiangsu Government Scholarship (hereinafter referred to as “the Scholarship”). In accordance with the Budget Law of the People's Republic of China, the Measures for the Management of Provincial-level Special Financial Funds of Jiangsu Province (Decree No. 63 of the Provincial Government) and relevant laws and regulations, as well as the actual situation of Jiangsu province and the college, these measures are hereby formulated.

Article 2 The scholarship is established by the provincial-level finance and is included into the management of provincial-level budget, which mainly rewards and subsidizes the outstanding foreign students who know China and are friendly to China and have good character and academic performance to study in Jiangsu. The scholarship is jointly managed by the Provincial Department of Finance and the Department of Education according to their respective responsibilities. The Department of Finance is responsible for fund allocation and budget issuance, and organizes the Department of Education to prepare the medium-term financial planning and annual budget draft of the scholarship. The Department of Education is responsible for improving the student information management system, strengthening the management of academic status and information of students, organizing audit and submission of basic data, proposing budget allocation proposals, supervising and managing the use of funds and policy implementation in conjunction with the Department of Finance and carrying out performance evaluation. The college is the main body responsible for the use of scholarships, so it should effectively fulfill the responsibility of legal persons, build sound internal management mechanism, and organize the implementation of budget. The college shall implement the use of funds and policy, and carry out performance evaluation to the Department of Finance and the Department of Education.

Article 3 The students to which the scholarship is awarded in these measures refer to foreign students who receive full-time academic education in Jiangsu full-time regular institutions of higher learning and junior colleges (hereinafter referred to as colleges and universities) approved to be established according to relevant national regulations. They accept long- or short-term project agreement or receive special funding.

Chapter II Classification, Criteria, Content and Payment
